FRIGHTENED
FRIGHTEN ON THE ROAD
<sup>Susto</sup>
~~A FRIGHTENING EXPERIENCE~~

Some years I had an experience which will last in my memory forever. It was during my Christmas Holidays.

I was driving with my parents from Granada to Malaga when we saw two or three cars when we were which were told to stop by a police officer.

At first, we thought it had been an accident. The queue of cars was growing quickly while the police officer was talking by his <sup>walkie-talkie</sup> walk and talking. Suddenly, he stood up and he took a gun from his motorbike. We were so shocked that we were not able to hide as the officer was running towards a car with the gun ~~in~~ his hands.

Afterwards, another officer arrived. We were ordered to leave the scene as quickly as we were able to. So, my mother shot off. When we ~~were~~ arrived at my grandparents' home, we watched on TV they were drug dealers. It ~~has~~ been the most frightening experience I have ever lived.
